PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

2019-pres. Executive Director, NIA IMPACT Collaboratory (MPIs: Mor/Mitchell)
Center for Long-Term Care Quality & Innovation
Brown University School of Public Health, Providence, RI

IMPACT builds the nation's capacity to conduct pragmatic clinical trials of interventions embedded within health care systems for people living with dementia and their caregivers. The award, currently $70M in total costs, doubled the volume of research conducted at the School and enhances the University's profile as a leader in Alzheimer's disease and related dementia.

Role requires and demonstrates extensive research collaboration, including both with investigators from the School and University, our partner MPI's site (Harvard), and across the country and with the vulnerable patients and family caregivers directly impacted by the disease of dementia. Recently awarded the 2024 Dean's Award for Excellence in Research Collaboration.

Responsible for:

- Leading four national inter-institution teams to execute IMPACT and engage people living with dementia and their caregivers.
- More than 100 subawards and consulting contracts and five funding announcements, each with its own independent grant review process, awards, and research protocols. To date, have reviewed 227 letters of intent.
- Oversight of real-time status of the 30-45 clinical trials active at any given time across IMPACT's funding mechanisms.
- Facilitation of grand rounds and podcasts to disseminate findings nationally.

Scholarly and service leadership also includes engaging patients and caregivers impacted by dementia through a lived experience panel that ensures that their perspectives inform the research we fund and support.

2015-2019 Director of Research
Planetree International, Derby, CT

Engaged healthcare providers and governments nationally and internationally in improving health care at Planetree, the non-profit healthcare organization that is the only person-centered care model recognized as a Quality Check by the Joint Commission, the worldwide accrediting body of healthcare organizations. Planetree is a not-for-profit advocacy, membership and consultation organization founded by a patient in 1978. The first patient-centered care organization in the USA, the Planetree philosophy of care has become a model for global person-centered healthcare improvement efforts and is used by over 900 clinical sites in 24 countries.

Led efforts in hospitals, nursing homes, ambulatory clinics, pediatric hospitals, outpatient surgery, and cancer centers in the United States, Saudi Arabia, Colombia, Brazil, Qatar, Canada, and West Africa (see list of sites pp. 4-5).

Part of the team selected by the Department of Veterans Affairs to collaborate with the VA Office of Patient-Centered Care and Cultural Transformation in the development of the VA's own patient-centered care model for veterans who receive services at the VA's more than 1,000 points of care across the nation.

Notable responsibilities included:

- Providing leadership, strategic guidance, and management direction for operational, financial and clinical performance, as well as patient, physician and employee satisfaction for health systems and hospitals.
- Designing evidence-based engagement strategies to facilitate organizational and workforce development and providing training for better conversations between patients, staff, health systems, payers, and other stakeholders.
- Completing quantitative and qualitative assessments of organizational culture, teamwork, and individual competencies.
- Planning and directing all aspects of research policies, objectives, and initiatives for Planetree, including: securing extramural funding to support the integration of assessments of safety and quality criteria and initiatives into patient-experience programs, services and resources; projects to measure the impact of these and related initiatives; and developing manuscripts.
- Providing on-site coaching of leadership teams, clinicians, and frontline staff to identify organizational inefficiencies that impact patient experience and provide real-time practice-level and enterprise-wide system-level solutions.
- Providing change management and healthcare transformation education and training for higher ed universities, to integrate the evidence-base for person-centered care into content and culture and support student-centered learning.

2011-2015 Research Consultant & Organizational Facilitator
Planetree International, Derby, CT

Provided coaching and evaluation to healthcare organizations in their implementation of patient experience model-known as person-centered care-across the continuum of healthcare settings. Analyzed commonly-siloed data points to determine relationships between satisfaction, quality, and safety metrics.
