COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, JUSTICE & ANTI-RACISM

- Founding Member, SUCCESS Clinical Research Collaborative:
  - DEIJ-AR-Related Activities: collaborate with other Rhode-Island based researchers to conduct clinical research relevant to youth in the juvenile legal and child welfare system, with a strong focus on research aimed at improving service delivery and access for youth who experience minoritization and marginalization.
- Member, DPHB Anti-Racism Steering Committee Communications Workgroup:
  - DEIJ-AR Related Activities: attend monthly meetings and complete tasks outside of meetings regarding communications pertaining to anti-racism efforts across DPHB.
- Consulting Psychologist, Rhode Island Family Court:
  - DEIJ-AR Related Activities: seek to divert minoritized youth (e.g., Black, Latinx, and LGBTQ+) youth away from legal system involvement and towards needed behavioral health services through consultation with judges, court staff, and clinicians, as well as direct service delivery (e.g., safety planning to avoid contra-indicated ER visits and arrests in the courtroom).

- Principal Investigator, NIDA-funded K23:
  - DEIJ-AR Related Activities: develop a new brief family-based intervention targeting cannabis use among youth with early juvenile legal system involvement, with a special emphasis on meeting the needs of youth and families experiencing minoritization and marginalization (e.g., Black, Latinx, and/or LGBTQ+ youth and families).
- Co-Instructor, Summer@Brown, Youth, Mental Health, & the Law:
  - DEIJ-AR Related Activities: Teach a college-level course for ethnoracially and geographically diverse youth covering equity and justice issues at the intersection of youth mental health, development, and the juvenile legal and child welfare systems.
- ****DEIJ-AR relevant publications and grants are starred throughout the CV****
