EDUCATION

Undergraduate

Manhattanville College, Psychology & Philosophy, B.A., May 2005

Graduate

Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Yeshiva University: Clinical Psychology with a Health Emphasis, Major Area of Study in Neuropsychology (APA-accredited), M.A., January 2013; Ph.D., June 2016
Dissertation: "Relationships among personality, executive functions, perceived stigma, and social well-being in socioeconomically disadvantaged and racially/ethnically diverse adults with medically refractory epilepsy."

POSTGRADUATE TRAINING

Predoctoral Clinical Internship (Clinical Neuropsychology Track)

University of California, San Diego / VA Psychology Internship Training Program,
(APA-accredited), 7/2015 – 6/2016
Training Directors: Sandra Brown, Ph.D., ABPP-CN & Amy Jak, Ph.D.
Primary Mentors: Marc A. Norman, Ph.D., ABPP-CN & Valerie Rice, Ph.D.

Postdoctoral Fellowship (Clinical Neuropsychology [50%] & Aging/Dementia Research [50%])

Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University, 8/2016 – 7/2018
Training Director: Stephen Correia, Ph.D. ABPP-CN
Associate Training Director: Jennifer Davis, Ph.D., ABPP-CN
Research Mentors: Geoffrey Tremont, Ph.D., ABPP-CN & Brian R. Ott, M.D.
Clinical Supervisors: Geoffrey Tremont, Ph.D., ABPP-CN, Jennifer Davis, Ph.D., ABPP-CN,
Andrea C. Sartori, Ph.D.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Duschene Center Community Service Scholarship, Manhattanville College, 2001

President's Academic Scholarship, Manhattanville College, 2001-2005

Merit Scholarship, Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Yeshiva University, 2010-2015

Edith Kaplan Award, Runner Up for Best Scientific Poster, 11th Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology, Chicago, IL, July 2013

Best Poster Award, International League Against Epilepsy Committee on European Affairs: 11th European Congress on Epileptology, Stockholm, Sweden, July 2014

Dr. Lee and Linda Rosenbaum Family Award for Excellence in Clinical Health Psychology, Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Yeshiva University, May 2016

Early Career Service Award, National Academy of Neuropsychology, October 2023

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES

Licensed Psychologist

Rhode Island, # PS01684 (3/2018 - Present)

Licensed Psychologist

New York, # 022805 (8/2018 - Present)

BOARD CERTIFICATION

American Board of Professional Psychology

American Board of Clinical Neuropsychology, # 10309 (4/2023 - Present)

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Clinical Instructor, 12/2018 – 11/2019

Department of Psychiatry & Human Behavior
The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University
Providence, RI

Assistant Professor, Clinician Educator, 12/2019 – Present

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, JUSTICE & ANTI-RACISM

- I make a point of conducting research designed to reduce health disparities and improve health outcomes among vulnerable and marginalized populations. These works are listed in my publications and conference presentations below (*denotes relevant works). Specific areas addressed include but are not limited to relationships between illness and treatment-related beliefs among African American, African Caribbean, and Latinx adults with chronic illness (e.g., diabetes, epilepsy) and their relationships with disease self-management (e.g., medication adherence) and adjustment to illness (e.g., perceived stigma, anxiety, depression, quality of life). I actively look for opportunities to involve Brown trainees in this work and ensure equitable opportunities for success.
- I lead a large interdisciplinary group of researchers in the development of an online stigma self-management program, which we have codesigned with communities affected by epilepsy. With funding from the Epilepsy Foundation of New England, my group successfully recruited sociodemographically diverse sample of people with epilepsy from 13 U.S. states (30% BIPOC, 30% bilingual, 30% unemployed). We are conducting quantitative and qualitative analyses to understand the effects of stigma intersectionality on intervention uptake and satisfaction so that we may modify its content to best meet the needs of our most diverse consumers.
- Clinically, I service outpatient, inpatient, and intraoperative settings (e.g., Wada testing, cortical language mapping) and routinely assess, diagnose, and treat patients requiring language interpreter services, as well as refugee populations, uninsured and underinsured individuals, and the unhoused. Referrals include questions of differential diagnosis, pre-surgical planning (e.g., epilepsy surgery, tumor resection, kidney transplant), and determination of civil capacities (e.g., healthcare decision making ability). I regularly involve Brown trainees in these cases to ensure that they are developing cultural competence.

- As a lecturer in Brown's Neuropsychology Training Programs, I take care to incorporate issues related to human social identity (e.g., race, gender, ethnicity, ability, and age) when creating didactic content for residents and fellows with accompanying case examples to enhance practical relevance and saliency for learning.

FUNDED GRANTS (COMPLETED)

Title: Improving neuropsychologists' detection of real-world medication nonadherence in Mild Cognitive Impairment.

Source: American Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology Foundation

Role: PI

Type: Investigator initiated grant

Term: Sept 2018 – Dec 2020

Funds: $15,000

Description: The objective of this study is to identify neuropsychological and psychosocial predictors of medication adherence in older adults with MCI who are managing medications for chronic illness independently.

Title: Detecting acetylcholinesterase inhibitor nonadherence in Alzheimer's disease.

Source: Department of Neurology, Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University

Role: PI

Type: Research Development Award

Term: Nov 2018 – Dec 2020

Funds: $21,000

Description: The objective of this study is to compare the ecological validity of a performance-based task of medication management capacity (Medication Management Ability Assessment) against more commonly administered cognitive screening tests in individuals with MCI or mild dementia who are being prescribed an anti-dementia medicine for the first time and plan to manage it independently.

Title: Validating the Fluctuating Mental Status Evaluation: A Novel Delirium Screening Tool

PI: Reznik

Role: Co-I

Funder: Network for Investigation of Delirium: Unifying Scientists (NIDUS)

Mechanism: NIDUS Pilot Award

Project Period: May 10, 2020 – April 30th, 2021

Funds: $80,500

Description: The objective of this study is to validate a novel bedside tool to aid detection of delirium in critically ill patients with stroke.

Title: Perceived barriers and facilitators of compensatory strategy use in Mild Cognitive Impairment

PI: Sullivan

Role: Mentor

Funder: Brown University Predoctoral Seed Money Research Grant

Type: Investigator Initiated
Project Period: October 15, 2020 – June 30, 2020
Funds: $2,424
Description: This mixed-methods study seeks to understand the barriers and facilitators of using compensatory strategies to offset cognitive impairment in older adults with mild cognitive impairment.

Title: Reducing Internalized Stigma in Epilepsy: An Internet Based Intervention for Adults
Role: PI
Funder: Rhode Island Hospital, Dept of Adult Psychiatry & Behavioral Health
Type: Early Investigator Pilot Award
Project Period: Feb 1, 2022 – January 31, 2023
Funds: $10,000
Description: This study aims to finalize the behavioral health modules of a public facing, internet-based, modular intervention for people with epilepsy to learn and apply strategies to reduce internalized stigma.

Title: Medications and the Risk of Motor Vehicle Crashes in Older Drivers (R01 AG065722)
PI: Zullo
Role: Co-I / Site PI for Rhode Island Hospital
Funder: National Institutes of Health (National Institute on Aging)
Mechanism: R01
Project Period: July 1st, 2020 – June 30th, 2024
Funds: $2,402,224
Description: The objective of this study is to evaluate the effects of medications, including dose and adherence, on motor vehicle crashes in older adults.

Title: Preparing for Stage II Efficacy Trial of Reducing Internalized Stigma in Epilepsy: An Internet Based Intervention for Adults
Role: PI
Funder: Rhode Island Hospital, Dept of Adult Psychiatry & Behavioral Health
Mechanism: Fish Family Philanthropic Award
Project Period: June 1, 2023 – May 31, 2024
Funds: $10,000
Description: This study will assess the feasibility/acceptability of conducting online assessments to gauge pre-post treatment levels of perceived stress, perceived rejection, satisfaction with social roles, loneliness, self-efficacy, perceived epilepsy stigma, and health-related quality of life in preparation for a stage II efficacy trial.

Title: Medications and the Risk of Motor Vehicle Crashes in Older Drivers (R01 AG065722)
PI: Zullo
Role: Co-I / Site PI for Rhode Island Hospital
Funder: National Institutes of Health (National Institute on Aging)
Mechanism: R01Supplement
Project Period: July 1st, 2022 – June 30th, 2023 (NCE through June 30th, 2024)
Funds: $250,000
Description: The objective of this study is to determine the feasibility of using motor vehicle crash events as a marker of pre-clinical and prodromal Alzheimer's disease (AD) by determining the probability of, and individual characteristics associated with, an AD diagnosis following a crash.

FUNDED GRANTS (ACTIVE)

Title: Reducing Internalized Stigma in Epilepsy: A Behavioral Online Video Education
Role: PI
Primary Funder: Epilepsy Foundation New England
Type: Blue Skies Challenge Award – Innovations to Improve Quality of Life in Epilepsy
Project Period: June 1, 2022 – May 31, 2023 (NCE through May 31, 2025)

Funds: $75,000

Description: This study aims to beta test a public facing, internet-based, modular intervention for people with epilepsy to learn and apply strategies to reduce internalized stigma and optimize its content/features based on user feedback and recommendations.

Title: The risks and consequences of a motor vehicle crash in older adults with Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias (R01 AG079295-01)

PI: Joyce

Role: Co-I / Site PI for Rhode Island Hospital

Funder: National Institutes of Health (National Institute on Aging)

Mechanism: R01

Project Period: July 1st, 2022 – June 30th, 2026

Funds: $2,400,000

Description: The objective of this study is to estimate the risks and effects of unsafe driving behaviors including motor vehicle crashes and related events on progression of cognitive impairment in older adults with and without cognitive impairment.

Title: Neuropsychological and Neuropsychiatric Outcomes of Neurosurgery for Drug Refractory Epilepsy

Role: PI

Funder: Norman Prince Neurosciences Institute

Mechanism: Early Career Development Award

Project Period: October 1, 2023 – September 31, 2025

Funds: $60,000

Description: This two-year project will develop a cohort of epilepsy surgery patients to provide preliminary data about neuropsychological and neuropsychiatric outcomes following novel neurosurgical techniques.

FUNDED GRANTS (PENDING)

Title: Driving safely or rarely? Novel methods to account for driving exposure when estimating the risk of a motor vehicle crash in older adults with ADRD

Role: Consultant

Funder: Pending

Mechanism: R01

Project Period (if funded): April 1, 2025 – March 31, 2030

Description: This study aims to develop and validate new methods for estimating the causal effect of individual level treatments on the risk of a motor vehicle crash in older drivers with Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias (ADRD) that account for differences in the amount of time someone spends driving and thus is actually at risk of a crash.
