GRANTS

Active Grants

Public Health and Health System Partnerships to Increase Colorectal Cancer Screening in Clinical Settings

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (NU58DP006780)

Role: Epidemiologist/Evaluator (Contract with Rhode Island Department of Health)

Award Dates: 06/30/2020 to 05/31/2025

Description: This award funds the Rhode Island Colorectal Cancer Screening Program. This funding cycle has focused on the implementation of evidence-based interventions to increase colorectal cancer screening in seven federally qualified health centers. In my role, I am responsible for the monitoring and evaluation of these efforts to support continuous quality improvement.

Initiative to Address COVID-19 Health Disparities Among Populations at High-Risk and Underserved

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (NH75OT000037)

Role: Subcontract Principal Investigator (via Rhode Island Department of Health)

Award Dates: 06/01/2021 to 05/31/2025

Description: This initiative is intended to improve capacity to prevent and control COVID-19 infection among populations at higher risk and those that are underserved. My work seeks to increase and improve data collection and reporting for populations experiencing a disproportionate burden of COVID-19 infection, severe illness, and death to guide the response to the COVID-19 pandemic, resulting in the creation of new tools for data-driven decision-making by community leaders.

Cancer Prevention and Control for State, Territorial, and Tribal Organizations

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (NU58DP007118)

Role: Epidemiologist/Evaluator (Contract with Rhode Island Department of Health)

Award Dates: 07/01/2022 to 06/30/2027

Description: This award funds the Rhode Island Comprehensive Cancer Control Program. This funding cycle has focused on the development and implementation of the state's comprehensive cancer prevention and control plan covering the five-year period of 2022 to 2025. In my role, I am responsible for the development and implementation of plans to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of partnerships, programs, and policies in achieving the objectives of this plan.

Unlocking Rhode Island's Pandemic Past

Funder: Brown University Office of the Vice President of Research Seed Funds

Role: Principal Investigator

Award Dates: 02/01/2024 to 06/30/2025

Description: This seed award aims to leverage advances in artificial intelligence to transcribe death records held by the Rhode Island State Archives for the period from 1853 to 1973. With linkages to decennial censuses from 1850 to 1950, this work will conduct in-depth epidemiological analyses of the impact of infectious diseases on the health and well-being of generations of Rhode Islanders.

Wood Pellet Emissions and Children's Environmental Health in Mississippi

Funder: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (R01ES036565)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Erica Walker, ScD)

Award Dates: 07/01/2024 to 06/30/2029

Description: This award will support exposure assessment activities in communities located near wood pellet production plants in Mississippi and the launch of a prospective cohort of children's health outcomes that may be associated with pollution from these facilities.

Advancing Health Equity in Asthma Control Through EXHALE Strategies

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Role: Epidemiologist/Evaluator (contract with Rhode Island Department of Health)

Award Dates: 09/01/2024 to 08/31/2029

Description: This award will provide continued funding for the Rhode Island Asthma Control Program, with a focus on expanding the reach and impact of the EXHALE technical package, a set of six evidence-based strategies for promoting asthma control across sectors.

Grants Under Review

Memories without Memorials: Digitally Recovering the Narratives of a Nation at the North Burial Ground

Funder: American Council of Learned Societies (Digital Justice Development Grant)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Jordi A. Rivera-Prince, PhD)

Anticipated Award Dates: 08/01/2025 to 1/31/2027

Description: This award aims to support a multidisciplinary archaeological collaboration that aims to use new digital technologies to recover the histories of individuals interred over a 325-year period in the free ground at the North Burial Ground, Providence's first public cemetery.

Advancing Health Equity in an Era of Risk-Guided Cancer Screening

Funder: National Cancer Institute (R01)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Rebecca A. Hubbard, PhD)

Anticipated Award Dates: 07/01/2025 to 06/30/2030

Description: This award aims to utilize data from the Breast Cancer Surveillance Consortium to develop methods for risk-guided screening that address specific sources of racial/ethnic disparities.

Discontinued Grant Involvement

Note: While I was involved in the development of these proposals or a significant portion of the research conducted as part of these awards, my involvement in these grants was discontinued to accommodate increases in teaching responsibilities during the 2022–2023 academic year and beyond.

Providence/Boston Center for AIDS Research

Funder: National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (P30AI042853)

Role: Core Faculty, Substance Use Research Core (PI: Susan Cu-Uvin, MD)

Award Dates: 09/01/1998 to 06/30/2028

Description: This award provides continued funding for the Providence-Boston Centers for AIDS Research, promoting excellence in HIV prevention and treatment research across New England. The Substance Use Research Core offers services and expertise on the methods needed to develop and conduct effective research on the intersections of HIV infection and substance use.

Localized Economic Modeling to Support Implementation of the Ending the HIV Epidemic Initiative

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01DA041747)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Bohdan Nosyk, PhD)

Award Dates: 03/01/2016 to 08/31/2026

Description: This award supports the continued development of HIV transmission models calibrated to represent all jurisdictions prioritized by the federal Ending the HIV Epidemic initiative. These models will be used to identify optimal prevention and treatment packages for each jurisdiction.

Improving Prevention Systems to Reduce Disparities for High Priority Populations

Funder: National Institute of Mental Health (R01MH115835)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant / Co-Investigator (PI: Sarit Golub, PhD)

Award Dates: 05/01/2018 to 01/31/2025

Description: This award supported a mixed methods evaluation of a novel integrated sexual health promotion intervention delivered to partners of people newly diagnosed with HIV infection by the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene.

Social Networks and Risk of Delayed Arrival to the Hospital During Stroke

Funder: National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (R01MD016178)

Role: Co-Investigator (MPI: Amar Dhand, MD, DPhil and Kevin Sheth, MD)

Award Dates: 04/20/2022 to 01/31/2027

Description: This award supports an assessment of the social networks of individuals who recently experienced a stroke and their impact on arrival time to hospital among patients in Boston and New Haven. These primary data collection efforts will support the development of an agent-based model to project the impact of network-based interventions aimed at reducing arrival time.

A Comparative Evaluation of Overdose Prevention Programs in New York City and Rhode Island

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01DA058277)

Role: Co-Investigator (MPI: Magdalena Cerdá, DrPH and Brandon Marshall, PhD)

Award Dates: 05/01/2023 to 02/28/2027

Description: This award supports a mixed methods assessment of the impacts of the opening of overdose prevention centers in two jurisdictions (New York and Rhode Island) on the health and well-being of individuals and communities impacted by the drug overdose epidemic.

Completed Grants

Enhancing Population Impact of HIV Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis Implementation

Funder: National Institute of Mental Health (R21MH09360)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant (MPI: Brandon Marshall, PhD and Philip Chan, MD)

Award Dates: 05/05/2016 to 03/31/2016

Description: This award supported the use of agent-based modeling to investigate strategies for optimizing the delivery of pre-exposure prophylaxis for HIV prevention to increase its impact on HIV transmission among men who have sex with men in Rhode Island.

Highly Adaptive Epidemic Control Strategies for HIV Prevention in Drug Users

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (DP2DA040236)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant / Co-Investigator (PI: Brandon Marshall, PhD)

Award Dates: 07/01/2015 to 08/31/2021

Description: This award supported the development of TITAN, an agent-based model intended to simulate the transmission of HIV through sexual and injection-related contact in several settings in the United States (e.g., Atlanta, Georgia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Scott County, Indiana).

Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis Uptake, Adherence, and Retention for Black MSM in Mississippi

Funder: National Institute of Mental Health (R34MH109371)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant (MPI: Amy Nunn, ScD, Philip Chan, MD, and Leandro Mena, MD)

Award Dates: 09/07/2016 to 05/31/2019

Description: This award supported the conduct of a pilot randomized controlled trial of strengths-based case management to support uptake of and adherence to pre-exposure prophylaxis for HIV prevention among young Black men who have sex with men in Jackson, Mississippi.

Characterizing the Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis Care Continuum for Black and Latino Men

Funder: National Institute of Mental Health (R01MH114657)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant / Co-Investigator (MPI: Philip Chan, MD and Amy Nunn, ScD)

Award Dates: 09/15/2017 to 06/30/2022

Description: This award supported a mixed methods evaluation of short- and long-term persistence on pre-exposure prophylaxis among a racially/ethnically diverse cohort of men who have sex with men in three settings (Jackson, Mississippi, Providence, Rhode Island, and Saint Louis, Missouri).

Causal Inference Methods for HIV Prevention Studies Among Networks of People Who Use Drugs

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (DP2DA046856)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant / Co-Investigator (PI: Ashley Buchanan, DrPH)

Award Dates: 07/01/2018 to 05/31/2023

Description: This award supported the development and evaluation of methods to quantify spillover (i.e., the effect of an intervention on unexposed individuals in the networks of exposed individuals) of HIV prevention interventions in networks of people who use drugs.

Assessing Gaps in HIV Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis Initiation and Retention Using Pharmacy Claims Data

Funder: National Institute of Nursing Research (R21NR018387)

Role: Graduate Research Assistant / Co-Investigator (PI: Lorraine Dean, ScD and Amy Nunn, ScD)

Award Dates: 03/07/2019 to 02/28/2021

Description: This award supported the use of prescription drug claims to identify instances where prescriptions for pre-exposure prophylaxis for HIV prevention were reversed (i.e., not picked up within two weeks of being filled) or abandoned (i.e., never picked up after being filled).

Comprehensive Public Health Approaches to Asthma Control Through Evidence-Based Interventions

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (NUE1EH001375)

Award Dates: 09/01/2019 to 08/31/2024

Description: This award funds the Rhode Island Asthma Control Program. This funding cycle has focused on expansion on the state's comprehensive integrated asthma care system to coordinate interventions across sectors (e.g., housing, education, health care, transportation). In my role, I am responsible for the development and implementation of plans to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of partnerships, programs, and policies in improving asthma care.

Leveraging Social Networks to Improve Uptake of a Novel Biomedical HIV Prevention Method

Funder: National Institute of Mental Health (F31MH121112)

Role: Principal Investigator

Award Dates: 09/30/2019 to 05/31/2020

Description: This award supported dissertation research that aimed to assess the potential for network-based interventions to improve the uptake of long-acting injectable pre-exposure prophylaxis for HIV prevention among Black men who have sex with men in Chicago, Illinois.

Reducing Drug-Related Mortality Using Predictive Analytics: A Randomized Community Intervention Trial

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01DA046620)

Role: Co-Investigator (MPI: Brandon Marshall, PhD and Magdalena Cerdá, DrPH)

Award Dates: 09/30/2019 to 07/31/2024

Description: This award supports the development of PROVIDENT, a machine learning model designed to predict drug overdose burden at the neighborhood level, and an assessment of the efficacy of prioritizing the allocation of harm reduction resources to neighborhoods based on these predictions by outreach workers in a statewide cluster randomized trial in Rhode Island.

Understanding Patterns of COVID-19 Vaccine Uptake in Rhode Island's Workforce

Funder: Advance Clinical and Translational Research (Advance-CTR) Pilot Award

Role: Principal Investigator

Award Dates: 08/15/2022 to 08/14/2023

Description: This pilot award supported a collaboration with the Rhode Island Department of Health and the Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training to link employment records with immunization records to describe patterns in COVID-19 vaccine uptake by industry.

Grants Submitted

Community-Based Participatory Mathematical Modeling to Accelerate Efforts to End the HIV Epidemic

Funder: National Institutes of Health Common Fund (DP5OD031817)

Role: Principal Investigator

Planned Award Dates: 09/01/2021 to 08/31/2026

Description: This proposal for a National Institutes of Health Director's Early Independence Award aimed to develop collaborations with six local health departments across the Southeastern United States for stakeholder-driven development of agent-based models to support decision-making in efforts to expand the reach and impact of biomedical HIV prevention strategies.

Geospatial Ethnography of Overdose Risk Among Transgender and Gender Diverse Persons Who Use Drugs

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R21DA053453)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Alexandra Collins, PhD)

Planned Award Dates: 09/01/2021 to 08/30/2023

Description: This proposal aimed to pilot a mixed methods approach for collecting data about the social context of drug use among transgender people through an innovative map-based platform.

Harnessing Momentum: Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion at the Brown University School of Public Health

Funder: Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Role: Guiding Team Member (PI: Meghan Ranney, MD)

Planned Award Dates: 03/15/2022 to 09/15/2023

Description: This proposal aimed to create cross-departmental teams to create and implement multi-year plans to advance systems-level change to improve diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts at the Brown University School of Public Health.

A Big Data Approach to Understanding the Impact of Residential Eviction on Substance Use Treatment

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R21DA055832)

Role: Principal Investigator

Planned Award Dates: 04/01/2022 to 03/2024

Description: This proposal aimed to link court records for residential eviction from the Rhode Island Judiciary with substance use treatment records from the Rhode Island Department of Behavioral Healthcare, Developmental Disabilities, and Hospitals to assess the causal impact of residential eviction on the completion of substance use treatment among people who use drugs.

Novel Causal Inference Methods for Evaluation of Spillover in Network-Based Studies for HIV Prevention

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01DA057140)

Role: Subcontract Principal Investigator (PI: Ashley Buchanan, DrPH)

Planned Award Dates: 07/01/2022 to 06/30/2027

Description: This proposal aimed to further refine methods for quantifying spillover effects of HIV prevention interventions in the networks of people who use drugs in observational studies.

Constructing a Statewide Community Noise Model to Assess Impact on Pediatric Health Outcomes

Funder: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (R21ES035186)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Erica Walker, ScD)

Planned Award Dates: 04/01/2023 to 03/30/2025

Description: This proposal aimed to develop an exposure model for noise pollution and assess potential associations of community noise with emergency department utilization and hospitalization among children in Rhode Island using the state's hospital discharge database.

An Ethno-Epidemiological Study of Overdose Vulnerability Across Genders

Funder: National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01D1058662)

Role: Co-Investigator (MPI: Alexandra Collins, PhD and Brandon Marshall, PhD)

Planned Award Dates: 07/01/2023 to 06/30/2028

Description: This proposal aimed to conduct a mixed-methods assessment of the social context of drug use among cisgender and transgender women and their partners in a prospective cohort.

Capacity-Building Assistance to Strengthen Public Health Systems and Services

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (via Cooperative Agreement)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Jennifer Nuzzo, DrPH)

Anticipated Award Dates: 08/01/2024 to 07/31/2029

Description: This award will support the development and implementation of a continuing education platform for epidemiologists employed at state, local, and territorial public health departments with the aim of strengthening core public health capacities in the United States.

Goedel

PREPARE: Partnership for Regional Emergency Preparedness and Response Excellence in Region 1

Funder: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (via Cooperative Agreement)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Jennifer Nuzzo, DrPH)

Anticipated Award Dates: 09/30/2024 to 09/30/2029

Description: This award will support the launch of a regional center that will serve as a coordinating hub for the development, implementation, and evaluation of evidence-based public health emergency preparedness and response activities across six states in New England.
