OTHER DUTIES

2014-current

Executive Director, Rhode Island Public Health Institute

The Rhode Island Public Health Institute is a 501c3 non-profit organization. RIPHI's mission is to promote community health and to eliminate health disparities in Rhode Island and beyond.

RIPHI owns Open Door Health, Rhode Island's first and only clinic dedicated to serving the LGBTQ community. Open Door Health also has a COVID testing site. Learn more at www.odhpvd.org

RIPHI is governed by a Board of Directors and works closely with the Brown University School of Public Health to translate research into public health practice. RIPHI also has formal partnerships and contracts with the Rhode Island Department of Health to advance the state's health policy objectives.

RIPHI's portfolio includes projects that: address food insecurity; provide fresh fruits and vegetables in food deserts and food swamps; enhance physical activity in public school physical education classes; provide HIV and hepatitis C screening, linkage to care and cure programs; promote active living; and advance the health needs of sexual and gender minorities.
